

Research Governance & ICH-GCP Training for Researchers

Accredited by the Royal College of Physicians

WORLD MEDICAL ASSOCIATION
Ethical Principles for Medical Research

Adopted by the 18th WMA General Assembly, 1949

29th WMA General Assembly, 1955

35th WMA General Assembly, 1961

41st WMA General Assembly, 1967

48th WMA General Assembly, 1974

52nd WMA General Assembly, 1978

53rd WMA General Assembly, 1979

55th WMA General Assembly, 1981

ICH Harmonised
Tripartite Guideline
for Good Clinical Practice

DECLARATION OF HELSINKI
Ethical Principles for Medical Research
Involving Human Subjects

Adopted by the World Medical Association, Helsinki, Finland, June 1964, and amended by the:

1975

October 1983

September 1989

World Health Assembly, 49th Session, Johannesburg, South Africa, October 1996

October 2000

Amendment on paragraph 29 added)

Amendment on paragraph 30 added)

The Medicines for Human Use (Clinical Trials) Regulations 2008

MEDICINES
2008 No. 941

...of the Public Inquiry
...children's heart surgery
at the Bristol Royal Infirmary
1984-1995

...coming from Bristol

The Belmont Report
Basic Ethical Principles and Their Applications

Education Centre, Arrowe Park Hospital
Friday 11th September 13.00-16.00 pm

To book your place, please ring the R&D Office
Ext 2958 or by email to Carol.Eames@whnt.nhs.uk